

Bucklesham

Parish Code: E04009381

Area Summary

Bucklesham is a village and civil parish in Suffolk Coastal that sits just off the junction of the A12 and A14 to the east of Ipswich.

The parish's population is concentrated around the centre of the village where you will find the majority of the community's assets. The locals have access to a village hall which is along the road from a playing field which hosts the local football team.

The village retains a primary school which sits slightly outside the main village. The village pub recently reopened under new management.

The area has a good number of local groups that includes an active community council. Many of the groups are shared with neighbouring villages, including the village hall itself which is shared with Foxhall.

A number of small businesses can be found outside the village on Chapel Road including a couple of campsites.
