

Campsea Ashe

Parish Code: E04009384

Area Summary

Campsea Ashe sits just off the A12 in Suffolk Coastal, on the opposite side of the main road to Wickham Market. Many travellers will have passed through the village without knowing as the 'Wickham Market' train station is actually located in Campsea Ashe.

The village has a well used village hall that sits alongside a recreational field and recently upgraded play park.

There are a number of local businesses and services. The village store is adjacent to a well known auction centre on the main road into the village. The village pub was temporarily closed at the time of writing but with the impression that it would reopen in the near future.

The Old Station House, that sits on the modern railway line, has recently been subject to a successful £300k fundraising campaign that will see it renovated for community use.
