

Dallinghoo

Parish Code: E04009395

Area Summary

Dallinghoo is a village and civil parish in Suffolk Coastal to the south-west of Wickham Market and north of Woodbridge.

The parish is made up of a patchwork of roads and has no major routes passing through the village. Dallinghoo has a high concentration of farms that are scattered throughout the area.

The main village sits along Church Road which is where you'll find the village hall and the parish church. The hall hosts a number of groups; many of which are 'shared' with neighbouring villages.

There are a number of businesses scattered across the area, including a vehicle recovery yard, and a cattery.

The parish has a historical pedigree as the birth place of Francis & William Light who established British colonies in Malaysia and Adelaide respectively.
