Area Summary

Lackford is a village and civil parish in St Edmundsbury that sits 8 miles north-west of Bury St Edmunds and around 6 miles south-east of Mildenhall.

The parish is perhaps best known for Lackford Lakes. The lakes offer an opportunity to explore natural habitats and take part in water sports. Suffolk Wildlife Trust operate a visitors centre close to the lakes.

The village itself has two settlements in Lackford and Lackford Green, both of which sit along the A1101 which runs from Bury St Edmunds to Mildenhall.

Lackford retains its parish church of St Lawrence which is used for both services and local groups. Local residents secured £70,000 of funding in July 2016 to develop a meeting room and additional facilities within the church to provide a venue for local groups.
