

Semer

Parish Code: E04009119

Area Summary

Semer is a village and civil parish in Babergh that sits equidistant from Sudbury, Stowmarket and Ipswich. The village of Hadleigh is less than 3 miles to the south east.

The settlement in that parish is predominantly split between Semer itself and Ash Street to the east.

The majority of the area's community assets sit in the north of the parish. The All Saints Parish Church is along Church Lane which is also where you'll find a body of water called the Semer Mere. This is fed by the River Brett which cuts through the middle of Semer.

The village hall sits along the B1115 which runs from south to north through the village.

There are a number of small businesses in the parish which includes a small business park. To the west of the village is Hollow Trees Farm which has a shop, café, butchers and animal trail.
