

Tunstall

Parish Code: E04009468

Area Summary

Tunstall is a village and civil parish in Suffolk Coastal that sits inland from Aldeburgh and south of Snape.

The village itself is a reasonably sized settlement with a number of both modern and older properties.

There are a number of community assets that serve the area. The village has a community centre and adjoining recreational ground that can be found beside the village pub. You will also find services such as a local petrol garage and two active churches.

The area benefits from its natural assets with a sizeable common and a large are of woodland called Tunstall Forest. Tunstall also sits in the Suffolk Coast & Heaths Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB).

Interestingly, Snape Maltings and its collection of cultural attractions are located within Tunstall's borders, and not in the parish of Snape itself.
